20 Important Christians You Should Follow on Social Media

Meg Bucher

Crosswalk.com Contributing Writer

Billy Graham, recently celebrating his 99th Birthday, is undoubtedly one of the most influential Christians to blaze the trail for all of those mentioned here today. The movement that he began in speaking out in his faith transcended denominational lines, and has given glory to God for almost a century!

For those who are looking for inspiration and godly direction, these servants of Jesus shine bright through dark and hard places to lift hearts to the One who holds the power to heal us, cheer us, and grant us peace in a maddening world. News feeds filled with their positivity, conviction, and glory given to Christ have the power to shift hearts towards heaven in the name of the One who permeates all channels of influence.
